

CHAMPAGNE AND RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION

If the five senses can be sollicitated during a tasting, the sixth one must not be forgotten:
the sense of responsibility

WHAT IS A RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION?

It is a consumption that combines knowledge, pleasure, respect and self-control.

THESE ARE SOME RULES TO BE RESPECTED TO OFFER AND/OR ENJOY A SAFE TASTING

Respect the legal minimum age for the consumption of an alcoholic beverage

Do not consume in case of pregnancy or while taking some sorts of medication

Do not drive in case of positive blood alcohol level

Use marked glasses to serve the appropriate amount

Pair the tasting with some solid dishes (little bites, bread, etc.)

Provide tools for blood alcohol level control

Inform about the principles of a responsible consumption

Provide some free water as well as soft drinks

Use spittoons

For more information, contact the competent authorities in your country

“ THE USE OF WINE IS A MATTER OF MODERATION ”
SAINT TOMAS D'AQUIN

Find out more:
Vin & Société (www.vinetsociete.fr)

Further information : champagne.education